

Modern Slavery Act Statement

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 (the “Act”) in respect of ExodusPoint Capital Management UK, LLP and its affiliate, ExodusPoint Capital Management UK Technologies, Ltd (collectively, “ExodusPoint” or “we”) in respect of the financial year ended 31 December 2024.

ExodusPoint Capital Management UK, LLP is a limited liability partnership incorporated in England and Wales. It is an investment management firm, authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority. ExodusPoint Capital Management UK Technologies, Ltd is a limited company incorporated in England and Wales.

References to the term “modern slavery” in this statement includes slavery, servitude and forced or compulsory labour, and human trafficking, as defined in the Act.

ExodusPoint neither condones nor tolerates the presence of modern slavery in its business or its supply chains. Whilst we believe the risk of modern slavery taking place in our business and our supply chain is low, ExodusPoint has policies and procedures in place to ensure adherence with the Act and applicable law, including bribery and corruption, money laundering, employment and discrimination, whistleblowing and escalation of staff concerns or issues. ExodusPoint’s Code of Ethics reflects its commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all areas of its business and its supply chain.

As an investment management firm, we consider the risk of modern slavery in our supply chain to be low. The goods and services we purchase in connection with the provision of our asset management services are limited to areas such as professional services, real estate, facility management, office equipment, software and non-core ancillary services such as catering or cleaning services. In addition, ExodusPoint sources its services primarily from the UK and other low-risk countries where modern slavery is not prevalent. Nonetheless, we are committed to taking appropriate steps to detect potential modern slavery and human trafficking or the presence of forced labour within any part of our business or supply chain including through our procurement and vendor management process and educating the appropriate personnel on the requirements of the Act. The effectiveness of these steps along with our policies and procedures relating to the Act are kept under periodic review. This statement was approved by the Members of ExodusPoint Capital Management UK, LLP and the Board of Directors of ExodusPoint Capital Management UK Technologies, Ltd.
